AMVETS would like to introduce a partnership with Lowe's that brings together two pillars in American culture: our military and the skilled trades industry.

Here are three key opportunities where this partnership will support veterans and their spouses. We're accepting applications until October 15, 2019.

- Generation T Scholarships: Scholarships up to $5,000 for those who are interested in entering the skilled trades industry:
 - Must be a veteran or the spouse of a veteran
 - Must be interested in training in one of the following trades: HVAC, Carpentry, Electrical, Plumbing and Appliance repair

- Lowe's + AMVETS Technology Scholarship: Scholarships of $5,000 for 10 eligible applicants:
 - Must be a veteran or the spouse of a veteran
 - Junior or Senior enrolled in Computer Science
 - Must have a minimum GPA of 3.0

- Veteranpreneur Business Grant: Grants for $25,000 to four aspiring entrepreneurs:
 - Must be a veteran or the spouse of a veteran
 - Must have worked 1-2 years in their trade
 - Must submit company logo, show social presence and complete online entry form

Additional eligibility requirements are not listed. Contact Lindsay Bonaparte at lbbonaparte@amvets.org or 301-683-4069 for more information. To apply, visit us at www.amvets.org/scholarships.
